“Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it:
except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.
Psalms 127:1

“Sowing Seeds of Need in the Soil of God’s Promises”
2 Cor. 1:20; James 1:12; 2 Pet. 3:9; Luke 17:6; Heb.
11:1

“Think on these things upon entering the church. As we take our places in this thy house of prayer, Dear Lord, may we fully concentrate upon where we are and what we are doing here. Fill us with the spirit of worship. Help us to be receptive to Thy grace. Prepare our hearts for the message from on high. Master, may our wills be submissive to Thine. Heavenly Father, grant that this time spent in Thy presence today will be of great spiritual value to those of us who are called by your name.”

Responsive Reading
" A Psalm of David "
(Psalms 11)

Minister: In the Lord put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

Congregation: For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

Minister: If the foundation be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

Congregation: The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

Minister: The Lord trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

Congregation: Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

ALL: For the righteous Lord loveth righteousness; his countenance doth be hold the upright.

OUR WEEKLY MEDITATIVE SCRIPTURE

The weekly meditation scriptures are designed to strengthen, encourage, and to help build your faith. To get the most out of these weekly scriptures, we encourage you to keep them before your eyes and meditate {mutter} daily on them, applying them to your everyday life's circumstances until you get results.

1 John 4:16

And we have known and believed the love that God has for us...

You may know that God cares for you and loves you, and that He demonstrated His love for you by dying on the cross for you, but do you believe it? It is one thing to know about the love that God has for you, but another thing to actually believe it in your heart.

It is one thing to know that the sun shines on us during the day. But it is another thing to believe that the sun is still shining even though we don't feel its warmth and all we see are dark clouds. Sometimes we are slow in believing God's love for us when we are going through a tough time. But God wants you to know and believe that He loves you in the midst of the deal falling through, when that job is slow in coming, when the boss is fault-finding or when your child still refuses to come home.

Thought For The Day

If God, the most powerful being in the universe, is for you, can anyone or anything come against you successfully?
